

Special Campaign Awards were rewarded on 16th September

On 16th September during the campaign session of the EAZA Annual Conference 2009 Special Campaign Awards were presented by Stuart Muir (Newquay Zoo) and Ann-Katrine Garn, campaign coordinator.

The winners were:

Zoo Dortmund - European Carnivore Campaign Teddy Bear Award

Zoo Dortmund received this award as more than 5,000 teddy bears enjoyed a fun day out at the zoo on 21st June 2009. Ilona Schappert of Zoo Dortmund was presented with a certificate and a teddy bear kindly donated by Mimex Brands & Labels.

Zoo Zagreb - European Carnivore Awareness Award

Zoo Zagreb received this award as they had produced a wide range of creative activities for children. A representative of Zoo Zagreb was presented with a certificate and a painting kindly donated by Eques www.equesinc.com.

Woburn Safari Park - European Carnivore Fundraising Awards

Woburn Safari Park received this award as they raised £7,000 in one evening for their "Best Dressed Bear" competition. Jake Veasey of Woburn Safari Park was presented with a certificate and a painting kindly donated by Eques www.equesinc.com.

Photos by Mikkel Stelvig (Copenhagen Zoo) and Eoghan O'Sullivan (EAZA Executive Office).